

The Marilyn and Sigi Ziering Brandeis Collegiate Institute (BCI) is an intensive summer experience that brings together young Jewish adults from all over the world to celebrate and learn about Judaism at their 3000 acre campus in Southern California. You'll engage in Jewish learning, arts, culture, and an exploration of community and self.

\ Participants are 18-26 years old*

\ You will be eligible for up to three college credits*

\ BCI 2012: June 19 to July 15, 2012*

\ Apply by the early bird deadline of March 14, 2012 and the cost is only $250 ($100 for international applicants)... and BCI will reimburse airfare!*

\ Apply for a Hillel/BJF grant to cover an additional $200 of expenses. Request a grant application or request more information by emailing BamaHillel@gmail.com.*

\ For more information and to apply, please see <http://bci.ajula.edu>.*

If you apply by the early bird deadline and receive a Hillel/BJF grant: your tuition, room & board and travel costs will only be $50 for this 3-week program!

* APPLY TODAY! ***